Well I just wanna comment what happened in the concert of Hammer Fall, in Monterrey Mexico.

DATE: March 30 2001.

PLACE: Casino Ferrocarrilero (the sacred place to metal bands).

HOUR: 22:00 hrs, but start after a pair of minutes.

Well, was a excellent concert, coz this Swedish band, play like a gods during one hour n a half. And the best moment of the night, happened when all of the members of the band changed to papers and their instruments the drummer(Jes Johansson) play the guitar, the vocalist (Jeacim Cansi) play the bass, the guitarist (Elmrrer) play the drums, the bass (Magnus Rosen) play the guitar, n the other guitarist sing (Dronjak, demonstrated that also it can them in the sung one), those changes just to interpreting " Break To Law", (Judas Priest`s song).

Ahm the crowd were near 200 youngs (in its majority men, I FEEL LIKE MM... EXCITE, jajaja but I just went to see the band, ejje) and obviously all dressed in articles of black color.

MM.. is important said that the crowd was a few people (but with a lot of metal power in the blood jajaj), anywys Cansi said that we r a fukin crowd, mm is like we are the better crowd of the world, jeajajajej.....

Their first song was Templars of Steel, was so kool, when they finished it, Cansi said that he feel so happy to stay finally with us in Mexico, n others kool things, well the next songs were The Metal Age, Stronger Than All, Steel Meets Steel, n a lot of songs like Renegade, that is the new lp, n obviously HAMMER FALL, n the past song was Break The Law.

IN ONE WORD THE CONCERT WAS EXCELENT
